AMENDMENT F

Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks
Washington, D.C. 20231

In response to Examiner's Communication dated 02/14/90,
Applicant provides the following comments.

(a) Applicant makes reference to his Petition with respect to having Examiner's holding of abandonment rescinded. This Petition is dated 02/13/90 and was submitted in direct response to Examiner's Communication dated 02/14/90. However, as of the present date, Applicant has not received any response to this petition.

(b) In his Communication, with respect to claims 139-142, Examiner holds that Applicant failed to point out how and why the recitations of the claims define novelty over, or are non-obvious over, Walker. Applicant totally fails to see the basis for and the pertinence of Examiner's position, but will nevertheless attempt as best he can to "point out how and why the recitations of the claims define novelty over, or are non-obvious over, Walker". Applicant points out as follows:

(1) Claim 139 recites a combination of:

(i) "rectifier means ... connected with an ordinary electric utility power line by way of a first and a second AC input terminal ..."; and
